Austin Events 2016 Calendar

Updates for Awesome People Like You!

Hello to the Awesomest Person in Austin!

Since you are so ridiculously good-looking, I wanted to send you a personal, very special announcement!

The 2016 edition of the "Austin Events" calendar is now out in stores and available online at Amazon. (It even qualifies for Prime!)

While not as attractive as yourself, the calendar looks really, really good this year!

While not as knowledgeable as yourself, the calendar has more events and activities than ever!

Thank you!!
Mike Stefanik
Founder, Austin Events Calendar

PS: Our sold-out "Yellow Calendar Chase" was a great success and a fantastic way to celebrate our 10th Anniversary of the calendar. Thank you so much if you were there!

OH MY GOSH SEE THE CALENDAR!!!

ZERO Amazon Reviews - Help!

Sadly, each year our great reviews on Amazon from the previous year's calendar are not carried over.

If you have a 2016 calendar or have seen one and like it - PLEASE consider giving us a review!

More Room to Write in 2016!

Need a little more room to write on the calendar?

We've expanded the grid this year and replaced the big, bold event bars with thin lines. We also changed the font.

All of this results in more space to write in your personal events and activities, doctors appointments and cat doodles!

Amazing Photos!

This year we sourced photos from many different Austin photographers, resulting in what is probably our best, most fun and most attractive wall calendar ever!
