Updates for Awesome People Like You!

Dear My Favorite Subscriber,

Thanks for being you.

Because if you weren't you, then someone else would be reading your email right now and really they should just mind their own business, right?

But also thank you for being you because YOU know how to have fun.

And when YOU have fun, then we ALL have fun.

Not just because your well-being and happiness are at the forefront of our minds at all times.

But also because these events wouldn't be around unless people were going to them.

And the reason everyone shows up to them is because YOU'RE there.

Yes, your fellow attendees might not given any indication that it's your magnetic personality that brings them there.

And that it's your very presence that draws their attendance.

But rest assured, it is.

Rest assured, even if you start asking people if they are attending because of you and they give you weird looks and so you show them this email and then they try to politely step back from you for some reason. Rest assured.

Don't worry about that.

They're just being polite and are afraid they might accidentally explode into a babbling mess of saying how awesome you are. Which would no doubt cause a domino effect with all the others at the event, making it into one big spectacle of fandom which would detract from your event experience.

Though I suppose such a barrage of flattery is somewhat appealing to even one as ego-less as yourself.

At any rate, enough about how much we like you. More about fun things you can do!

Here's your Austin Events 2018 Wall Calendar updates for July and August.

You are the best!
Mike
