- Milestones
- May updates
- June updates
- It's electric!
- Ancient video
- Same old marketing stuff

Dear my best looking subscriber,

The email newsletter will be celebrating its 30th anniversary in just a few handfults of years.

To mark that significant and immanent occasion, I decided to send you an email newsletter filled with updates to your wall calendar's events. Just like I usually do.

But another way that you might maybe possibly get events is in the "electronic" calendar we're making. Whatever that means.

What I do know is that the electronic calendar will also be celebrating it's 30th anniversary in just three or four decades. Wow does time fly!

See below if you want to give feedback on what the website-app-handheld-self-driving calendar should be.

Here's your updates for May and June.

Enjoy Austin and thanks for your support!
Mike

PS: Don't have a wall calendar? I've dropped the price to $9.99 on Amazon. Which, if I've done my math right, works out to just $535.23 per month. What a steal! I might buy them all myself.

YES I'M STILL PLUGGING THE COMMERCIAL OVER A YEAR LATER!

We've (still) got a video on the website now of me showing people how a calendar works. I paid a lot for this, so expect to see it for eternity! Check it on out the sample page. (To make it bigger, click on the little YouTube icon in the bottom right.)

Thanks to Moth to Flame, who I worked with on this project.
