Updates for Awesome People Like You!

Dear my Favorite Subscriber,

There's a lot of people that have signed up for this email newsletter but YOU are the reason I write it. Not that there's anything wrong with those other 2,674 people.

It's just that you are better and so much more awesome in every way.

Yeah you might think that I say that to all the subscribers. And I wouldn't blame you for thinking that. Because who would write a newsletter for just one person?

I would. Because it's for you, and you are the best and the only one worth writing newsletters for.

But let's just keep that secret between you and me.

If you know someone else who has signed up for this newsletter, it's probably better you don't tell them that you are the only one that actually receives it.

That would just cause hurt and confusion, and, well, none of us wants that.

Just keep this newsletter a secret to yourself and know that you are truly my favorite subscriber. Thank you.

Here are your wall calendar updates for May and June!

Thanks!
Mike
