Austin Events 2014 Calendar Updates for Awesome People Like You

September-October
2014 Updates

In This Email:

- Get cross with me. Or not.
- September updates
- October updates
- Same stuff we always put at the end. Whatever.

Dear My Favorite Subscriber,

Here is a personal email message from just me to just you.

I know you have lots of email newsletters filled with fluff and Facebook posts of questionable value to attend to right now, so I appreciate you opening and reading my email filled with fluff of questionable value.

We here at calendar central are hard at work on the 2015 Austin calendar.

And the 2015 Portland calendar.

And a NEW city which shall remain nameless.

Well at least until a little while longer. Lubbock, perhaps? We'll see. Cross your fingers! I know mine are certainly crossed.

Do not cross your fingers too tightly, however. This may lead to a loss of circulation in the hand. One time I did that, and I was unable to give anyone a thumbs up for four years.

Seriously, just cross them lightly and give well wishes.

However do neither if you are driving right now because you should be concentrating more on the road. And if you are driving right now, you really shouldn't be reading emails.

However, if this email is being read aloud to you in your vehicle by one of your devotees, I guess that would be alright.

Though I would still not recommend you crossing your fingers. Not until you have reached your final destination.

Please understand, I'm not trying to tell you what to do; I'm sure you are aware of the potential hazards. I'm just concerned for the safety of the most important person on the planet.

If you would be so kind, please ask your devotees to cross their fingers as well.

Unless you are being driven by one of your devotees, in which case feel free to cross your fingers as you wish but please be sure they do not try to emulate you (as they so often do).

But not too tightly, remember.

Thank you for the well wishes.

Here are your September and October updates!

YES I'M STILL PLUGGING THE COMMERCIAL OVER A YEAR LATER!

We've (still) got a video on the website of me showing people how a calendar works. I paid a lot for this, so expect to see it for eternity! Check it on out the sample page. (To make it bigger, click on the little YouTube icon in the bottom right.)

Thanks to Moth to Flame, who I worked with on this project.
