

Austin Events 2017 Calendar

Updates for Awesome People Like You!

Dear My Favorite Subscriber,

Your excellent mental facilities have no doubt deduced that the calendar team and I have been very busy putting the 2018 calendar together.

Because we're a few days late on the newsletter.

As you know, this every-two-months newsletter (which is usually on time) is now in it's 11th year.

Yet I feel I haven't even scratched the surface yet of the colossal mountain of flattery you deserve.

It's really not flattery, though. It's more like highly deserved observations.

While I really appreciate your business, the whole greater Austin community benefits from your magnificent existence in numerous ways. Allow me to enumerate a few of the numerous ways with numbers:

First, just knowing that you live in Austin* makes us all happier.

Second, by using the calendar you are going out and doing Austin* things and supporting the awesome events, activities, businesses and opportunities that make Austin such a great, unique place to live.

Third, we donate 5% of our profits to all kinds of local charities that benefit the people, places and animals that we all love.

Fourth, you don't mind if I stop at just four things because you're so modest.

*If you happen to not live in Austin right now we all still benefit from your interest in (or accidental subscription to) this newsletter.

We've got your September and October updates below!

You are the best!
Mike
